Selectboard Meeting Minutes
April 21, 2014

Greg reported that the annual VLCT Workers Compensation Audit went well. He reminded the Board that it is important to have employee and contractor forms and paper work before paying anyone or the Audit would not go so well and Westmore could face possible extra payments.

Burton moved and David seconded to have Steve get the beach bathrooms ready and get two port-o-lets. Bruce said the Forest and Parks guy he dealt with said there might be grants for this.

Bill moved and Burton seconded to approve Select Orders and Payroll #8. Passed.

Greg explained a dog complaint from Andrew Murray about his neighbor's dog running loose on his property. It is the tenant of Jeff Willey who said last year that the tenant would be gone. He's not. Mr. Murray had numerous complaints about this same dog last year. Greg showed the Board a new VLCT "Big Book of Woof" with dog control issues and informed the board of a Dog Control Workshop May 29th in Montpelier.

My family owns property on Willoughby Lake and on occasion over the last several years we have taken public positions on a variety of zoning requests and applications for Act 250 permits. We have also been actively seeking restoration of properties on the lake damaged in recent years by violations or suspected violations of Act 250 permits.

These matters are clearly emotional for many people. Our concern has always been to see that regulations are followed and when broken, damage is suitably repaired. Any positions we have taken have been carefully thought out and presented objectively. Our overriding concern has always been maintaining the integrity and beauty of the lake, one of VT's greatest natural resources.

Unfortunately, some individuals who do not agree with our concerns have taken our actions personally, as an attack on them or on their neighbors. I am enclosing a copy of mail I received on March 29. It was written on a 3 x 5" piece of paper torn from a small spiral notebook. The unsigned, handwritten note says, "You don't even deserve proper letterhead – How mean can you act. I do not appreciate this letter you sent. You are scum + petty. Leave these people alone. (signed) Neighbor"

The envelope is postmarked 26 March 2014, White River Junction, VT, 5 days after a public hearing on Act 250 Application #7R0226-11. The message is clearly from someone on a short list put together by the state, who was copied on comments we submitted regarding this application, as required by the Act 250 process. There is no question this individual holds a differing opinion. It would not be difficult to determine who sent it.
