Bill called the meeting to order at 6:00pm

Additions to Agenda

- none

Road Foreman Report

- Everything is going well with Reilly. He's doing great.
- They are working on repairs of small equipment.
- Clayton is getting pricing on possibly fixing the rotary mower.
- Will be putting the wing on the grader to be prepared for pushing back snow.
- Reilly installed winter tires on the Mack. It now steers a lot better.
- Going to start fixing the sicklebar mower and service the excavator for the spring.
- Clayton will start pricing out hydroseeders for this year's grants in aid money we are getting.

Transfer Station Report

- Peter reported Burton called and things are going well. Burton is reaching out to residents of the private roads he isn't going up to coordinate where pickup will be and what time he estimates getting there.
- Discussion ensued about extra help at the Transfer Station. At this point the board doesn't feel any winter help is necessary. Jeff Leland has trained for the last 2 Saturdays in the event extra help is necessary.

Old Business

- Ambulance Services – discussed options about coverage. Adam Heuslein from Glover EMS presented a letter of the services they provide and the cost of servicing the Town of Westmore. Lots of good discussion occurred and will be presented at town meeting when the voters are asked to contract and pay for ambulance services.

Lister's

- Chris presented the 2017 no appeals pending letter for signature. Peter motioned and Bill seconded for all board members and town clerk to sign this letter. Passed.

Approval of Minutes

- Peter motioned and Bill seconded to approve the meeting minutes of 12/26/2018. Passed.

New Business

- Miriam reported the WMD meeting will be tomorrow 1/8/19 and Burton will be attending with her.

Review of bills and sign SO & Payroll #1

- David moved and Peter seconded to approve select orders and payroll #1. Passed.

Peter motioned and David seconded to adjourn at 9:12pm. Passed.
